

WINASH GAZETTE - November 2024 edition

Welcome to the November Gazette

As we bid farewell to October and embrace November, we have relished pumpkin carving, baking delicious chocolate chip cookies, making bird feeders, and beginning our preparations for the festive season ahead.

Staff

We would like to welcome Danielle to the night care team.

Winash Shop

Just to remind you the Winash shop is open on a fortnightly basis on a Saturday morning at 11.00am. If you would like anything in particular to purchase especially with Christmas round the corner, please let June or Emma know.

Congratulations

Winash friends, family and staff raised £192.81 for MacMillan at the coffee afternoon. Thank you to everyone who donated and helped make cakes.

Activities - General

Rydal Children continue to see us once a week, on a Thursday morning. They have thought of many lovely activities for us all to get involved with. Jack Hazeldine will continue to visit us each week.

Research: Anthropos detect will start next month.

We are still waiting to hear back from Gloucester University about the outside Sounds January 2025 and the dehydration study. When we have confirmation, we will let you know.

Christmas Party

The Residents Christmas Party will be on Tuesday, 3rd December (16.00-19.00) and you will all be able to invite two special people to join the party. Staff will be putting on some entertainment and we encourage residents to provide some entertainment too. I know that the Winash band will be performing, and it sounds fantastic. If you would like to read a poem, sing, dance, or anything, please speak to your key worker and they will support you to do this.

November is going to be a busy month getting ready for Christmas, lots of making and baking. Keep your eyes peeled for these things on the activity sheets.

Outings

There will be a trip to Hill Road and local areas to see the lights and Portishead to see the Christmas Lights. Please let Emma know if you would be interested in either of these trips. There will be additional trips as well.

Here is November's Poem

Breezy Weather

Breezy Weather, Freezy Weather.
When the leaves fall, we all fall together.
Breezy Weather, Freezy Weather.
When the wind blows, we huddle together.

Maintenance

Please inform Heather or Emma if you have any maintenance concerns/issues.
