

WINASH GAZETTE - October 2024 Edition

Welcome to the October Gazette

In September we were able to enjoy the last of the sunshine, another BBQ, and some trips out. We will now be welcoming the darker evenings and cosy nights in.

New Residents

We are delighted to give a very warm welcome to Janet M who has joined us at Winash and Janet W who has joined us for Respite.

Happy Birthday, this month, goes out to:

20th Dennis H and Roy S

Staff

We are delighted to welcome Jose to the Kitchen team who has joined as our part time cook. We hope he settle well into the team happily and enjoys working at Winash.

Winash Shop

We will be purchasing items for the shop, if you would like anything, please speak to June B or Emma. I know it is early, but we will be purchasing Christmas cards, if you would like any presents bought for family members, please let us know and we will arrange this.

Activities - General

We will be organising a visit to Cadbury Garden Centre to look at all their Christmas goodies and lights.

Rydal children will continue to come in on a weekly basis to engage in activities with you all. The children will be learning a poem each month and we thought it would be lovely share these poems with you and recite them at the end of their weekly session.

If there are any activities you would like to do, please let Jeanette or June know.

Do not forget to save the date!

Residents Christmas Party 3rd December

4pm to 7pm

Reminders

Please do not throw away the plastic medicine pots, we are able to sterilise them and use again - thank you.

Here is October's Poem

5 Little Pumpkins

Five little pumpkins sitting on a gate,
The first one said, "Ooo, it's getting late."
The second one said, "There are witches in the air."
The third one said, "Well I don't care."
The fourth one said, "Let's run, run, run."
The fifth one said, "Let's have some fun."
But ooooh went the wind, and out went the light,
And five little pumpkins tumbled out of sight.

FIVE LITTLE PUMPKINS

Research:

Anthropos detect have been in contact and have finally confirmed this will go ahead at the end of October. We are still waiting to hear back from Gloucester University about the outside Sounds January 2025 and the dehydration study. When we have confirmation, we will let you know.

Maintenance

Please inform Heather or Emma if you have any maintenance concerns/issues.

The Alarm system will be completed this month.
