

WINASH GAZETTE - September 2025 Edition

Welcome to the September Gazette

As summer begins to wind down and the crisp air of autumn starts to arrive, we're excited to welcome a new season full of cozy moments, colourful leaves & plenty of activities to enjoy together.

September Birthdays

20th – David Woodward

General News

Due to Heather and Kate's hard work and dedication, Winash has been awarded the GSF (Gold Standards Framework) accreditation.

This is a nationally recognised mark of excellence in end-of-life care.

Heather & Kate will be attending the GSF awards in Birmingham in September – have a lovely time ladies!

Staff

Some exciting staff news from Olivia, who shared the exciting news that she is pregnant & expecting in February 2026! How exciting, congratulations, Olivia!

Andrew will be leaving us this month to go back to Uni, we wish him all the best of luck in his studies, it's been lovely having you & hopefully we'll see you in the Christmas holidays.

Dates for your September Diary:

2nd – Baking with Amy O & Jeanette
9th – World Sudoku Day
11th – Baptist Church Visit
16th – DD's Footcare
21st – World Alzheimer's Day
22nd – Autumn officially begins

Activities - General

Hopefully you've been able to meet our lovely new Activities Coordinator, Amy O. Amy also has experience in care, so as well as activities, she will also be carrying out some care for one shift per week.

Mary is on holiday, so she won't be in, in September. We look forward to seeing her when she gets back & hope she has a lovely time away.

Save the date!

Residents Christmas Party Wednesday 3rd December

4pm to 7pm

We'd love to see you there!

Reminders

A quick reminder to please don't throw away medicine pots, they can be reused and recycled, thank you.

Maintenance

Thank you all for your cooperation while the lift was out of action, we apologise for the lift being out of action for longer than we initially thought.

Please inform Heather or Emma if you have any maintenance concerns/issues.
